> COTTON. CNAMBER OF COMMERCE, MEMPHIS, December 24, 1869.

The market was without decided change, though offerings were on a more liberal scale, occasioned by a demend from the country for money mas purposes, which enabled regular buyers, as well as local speculators, to pick up a number of small lots at rates considerably below what was asked on tables. The business of the day, including some purchases on speculation, was 1368 bales, mostly at a basis of 24c for Middlings. Ordinary was heavy, and sales were at 21622c. The ruling price for Low Midsold was at 24c. Good Middlings were in sismand at 25c, but were picked up in a Finall way at lower prices. Sales of Good DZARK, New York there was no material change, Uplands closing dull at 25@25%c.
